ABOUT NIMA

Committed to People and Possibilities

Originally from Iran, Nima is a seasoned real estate agent with 20 years of property experience in Dubai. He provided him with valuable skills that he uses daily in his real estate negotiations, in educating homebuyers and sellers. He is very good at building good relationships with his clients and workers. An engineer by profession, Nima has managed to deliver iconic projects across the city, including Dubai Metro, Motiongate developments, and 400 Villas, to name a few.

His transition in the Dubai property market is nothing short of a remarkable achievement, combining technical and management skills, along with market knowledge. Together, it has helped him serve both investors and end users with utmost confidence. As a Real Estate specialist, he deals in various communities across Dubai, especially Damac Hills 1 & 2, and also advises on the best investment in Dubai. Nima has an approachable nature and genuine care for people; therefore, his work ethic is built on the foundation of trust in every deal.

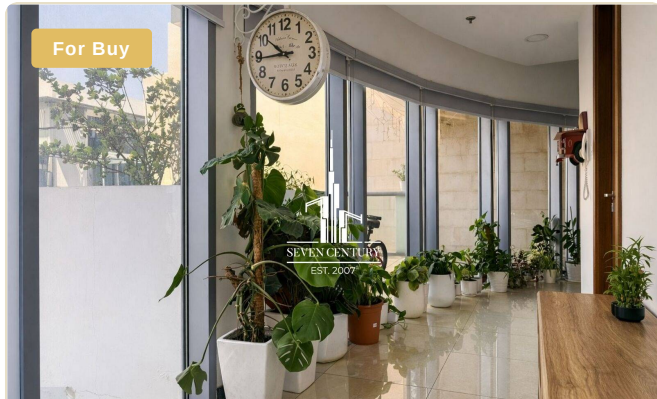

His charisma and happy-go-lucky attitude make clients feel instantly at ease, and many describe working with him as professional and enjoyable. Whether you're a seasoned investor, first-time buyer, or anyone looking for guidance, he knows where to place your next best investment. Nima brings a tailored approach, backed by years of hands-on experience, along with superb negotiation skills as well.
