ABOUT THE AGENT

Committed to People and Possibilities

Rama Mona is a reliable and dynamic real estate agent at Seven Century Real Estate. She has built a strong reputation in the industry by combining professionalism, attention to detail, and exceptional support for her clients. She is a trusted advisor for both buyers and investors in Dubai, since her integrity and client-first mindset come in handy. Originally from the USA, Rama moved to Dubai to seize the incredible opportunity that Dubai's real estate market has.

Rama takes pride in actively listening to her client's needs and making sure that they feel supported at all times. From initial consultation to property handover, her ability to build strong and meaningful relationships with the client is a testament to the care and professionalism she brings to every deal.

Rama is known for her prompt response and embraces working in a fast-paced environment. Her expertise lies in Damac Hills and surrounding areas, along with deep knowledge of Dubai communities, investment trends, and off-plan opportunities. With her strong dedication and extensive experience, she goes the extra mile to let clients make confident decisions. If you are looking for a passionate real estate agent in Dubai who is client-focused, reach out to her today!
