ABOUT HOSSEIN

Committed to People and Possibilities

Hossein Mizban, originally from Iran, has gained valuable cultural insight from his time in Kuwait and the UAE. Since 1998, he has moved to Dubai and has built a strong foundation in the Dubai real estate market, which sets him apart from the rest. He joined Seven Century Real Estate in 2017 and has become a trusted specialist in both sales and rentals.

With expert knowledge in areas like Damac Hills, Downtown, and even Dubai South, he is highly regarded for his knowledge. During his free time, Hossein enjoys cycling and swimming, maintaining both professional and personal passions. He is fluent in both English and Farsi, which allows him to communicate effortlessly with clients from different backgrounds. He doesn't just close deals, he focuses on long-term value and exceptional ROI, thus clients make smart decisions aligned with present needs and genuine future goals.

Hossein is known for his hands-on approach, ensuring clients feel welcomed and supported at all times throughout the transaction. He has a strong track record of successful transactions and an excellent collection of client testimonials. This makes him a highly respected member of the Seven Century and a valuable guide to the client. For those seeking trusted real estate support in Dubai, he is the right choice. Hossein has in-depth knowledge of property laws, trends, and the evolving real estate market. He has demonstrated exceptional skills in managing transactions and fostering client relationships.
