ABOUT ZAHRA

Committed to People and Possibilities

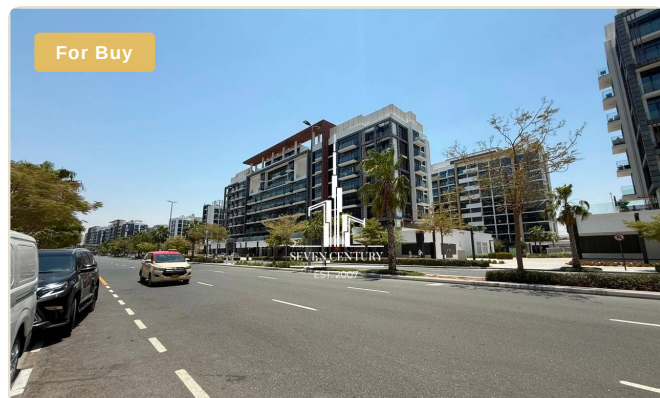

Originally from Iran, Zahra is a seasoned, dedicated, and reliable real estate agent, with over seven years of hands-on experience in the ever-evolving Dubai market. What truly sets her apart is her personalized approach, taking time with her clients to understand their genuine needs.

She is focused on achieving the goals of her clients and delivering tailored solutions that match their expectations, budget, and lifestyle. She comes with a deep understanding of the market trend, as well as community dynamics, allowing her to provide expert guidance and insights to both international and local clients. Zahra brings her expertise in a wide range of properties, including apartments, townhouses, villas, ready to move in, or off-plan, catering to a broad spectrum of clients.

Zahra has a strong foundation in both buying and selling, ensuring a rewarding and smooth experience for all. Her services are based on the concept of trust, transparency, and integrity, as she continues to grow in the fast-paced market of the city. She is driven by a passion for real estate and consistency in delivering outstanding services with professionalism at the core. Her dedication, market insight, and client-first mindset make her a valuable asset at Seven Century Real Estate.
