ABOUT AHED

Committed to People and Possibilities

Ahed Alkadi moved to Dubai in 2019, bringing about eight years of real estate experience from his home country. Fluent in both English and Arabic, he bridges cultural gaps and focuses on strengthening the relationship with his clients. He has a comprehensive understanding of the local market and has successfully guided over 500+ clients. Each of the clients has appreciated his commendable skills to help them get their dream home and meet their unique needs.

His commitment to client satisfaction for the home buying and renting process sets it apart from the rest. As a real estate specialist, he boasts strong expertise in all areas of the city, particularly focusing on Damac Hills. His deep knowledge of these neighbourhoods allows him to give valuable insight and suggest the best property for clients. His trust and transparency are the most crucial factors, and this is what helps him place trust in the client's mind. Whether you're looking to buy, sell, or rent a property in Dubai, he is there to assist you.
