ABOUT SARA

Committed to People and Possibilities

Sara Askari is a very respectable and highly skilled Property Consultant with an outstanding track record of a growing client base. Starting her real estate career in 2016, she offers expert knowledge about the local market. Along with that, she can also be easily relied upon to help sellers enhance the visibility of their properties and market them to a large buyer community.

For investors, Sara becomes a gem of a realtor in Dubai as she can offer outstanding investment opportunities and homes for buyers, providing a professional service, financial solutions, and legal advice. She specializes in commercial and residential properties in major communities in Dubai, from the downtown skyline to the waterfront developments, upcoming or secondary.

She is well-equipped to negotiate and procure competitive prices for clients. She also has an extensive portfolio of properties all over the Emirates and can guarantee that you will find something to suit your specific requirements.
